Personal Updates:

Lori started the July long weekend by volunteering at the Home Base Charity Slo-Pitch Tournament presented by Raymond James. The event raised over $212,000 for JoeAnna's House, a home-away-from-home for families of patients travelling to KGH for care. She finished the weekend by entertaining out of town guests and that will continue throughout the summer as the steady stream of out of towners arrive!

Jay's ride across Alberta went very well. The weekend kicked off on Thursday in Lake Louise watching the Toronto Raptors winning the NBA championship! On Friday morning the team set off from the BC border and rode 220km into Calgary. From Calgary, the team road 230km through Drumheller stopping for the night in Hanna. Day three was fairly casual in comparison with only 145km from Hanna to the Saskatchewan border. Now that school is out, the focus shifts to keeping the kids busy with some camping trips, mountain biking, and various summer camps.
